Principal Message

It is hard to believe we have less than six weeks left of school and only five weeks for our seniors. This is a very busy time of year with SAT/PSAT testing, Senior Decision Day, Senior counselor meetings and celebration events, Prom, AP exams, and awards ceremonies.

We have a long tradition of honoring seniors at an end of the year awards ceremony, which this year will be on May 11th. Seniors being recognized for academic, athletic or extracurricular awards as well as scholarships will receive an invitation to the event in the next week.

This year we are going to expand our recognition to include grade level assemblies to recognize underclass students for department awards, academic achievement as well as academic improvement of their GPA over the past year. The purpose of these assemblies is to recognize and acknowledge our 9, 10th, and 11th grade students who are committed to excellence and continuous growth and learning in their classes and academic extracurriculars. This will be held on April 27th during the school day. Sophomores will be 1st period, Juniors will be 2nd period, and Freshmen will be 3rd period in the auditorium. There will be a recording available for families to view as soon as possible after the event. Hopefully this will begin a new tradition honoring our motto "Where Excellence is Tradition" at Glenbard South.

Reminder: Important Testing Starting Tomorrow with the SAT and beyond

It is very important for all assigned students to be in attendance. Specific room assignments were sent to student email addresses earlier this week. SAT and PSAT scores will be used to help decide course selections for following school year. It is important to take this seriously and do your best!

- SAT: Wednesday, April 13, 2022 (7:30 - 12:45)
  - Juniors Only; No school for other students.
- PSAT 8/9 and PSAT 10: Tuesday April 19, 2022 (7:30 - 11:30)
  - Freshman and Sophomores Only; No school for other students.
- AP Testing: May 2 - 13
  - Each subject is tested on a different day. Please see THIS LINK for specific dates.
  - Many resources are available to support students as they prepare for their exams:
    - Their teachers are their best resource! Active participation in class and careful completion of classroom assignments will help all students be ready for their tests.
    - The College Board suggests these six tips for students as they prepare for their AP Exam.
    - AP Daily will provide all new live review sessions. Watch them live on the College Board YouTube channel or the recordings in AP Classroom. Here is a schedule of when each review session will occur.

Be sure to get plenty of rest, a healthy breakfast and come with a clear mind on test dates. We are rooting for you!

Best wishes,

Principal Santee

South's Art Program

It has been a rewarding and busy season in the Art Department, and we're just getting started! Over the past month, students have had multiple opportunities to connect and showcase their work locally and beyond. We are happy to announce the in-person return of the GBS Spring Art Show on Tuesday, May 3rd from 6-9pm in the Commons Hallway! Open gallery viewing will be from 6-7pm, with Awards at 7pm in the Library. We will end the evening back in the galleries, and work will be on display through May 11th. Each student who has taken an art class this year will be represented, as well as the work highlighted below:

Black History Month: South's BEU hosted their 2nd annual BHM Art Competition, giving students the opportunity to create an original piece of work honoring an unsung hero. The following students received honors for their entries:

1st (Tie): Zoe Price & Hans Herrera

2nd: Matilda McLaren

3rd: Peter Dede

All work is on display at the end of the Main office Hallway leading into the Special Education department.

Upstate 8: South artists put forth a strong group of pieces in their return to the Upstate 8 Art Competition. Congratulations to the following artists who earned awards:

Naomi Concepcion, 1st place in Sculpture

Hannah Poore, 3rd place in Sculpture

Julie Salama, 3rd place in Mixed Media

Alesia Karari, Honorable Mention in Drawing

All entries were exhibited virtually and are viewable via the following link here!

IHSAE: South artists were happy to return to the highly selective competitive art event, IHSAE (ArtConnected). Students had an opportunity to have their work exhibited alongside the strongest works across the state's return to in-person event at the Bridgeport Art Center. All students were invited to experience a series of live art events, tour artist studios, and have portfolio reviews with college representatives. The following students work was featured at this year's event:

Hans Herrera, Painting

Alesia Karari, Drawing

Emma Miranda, Painting

Jessica Nakayama, Digital Photography

Julie Salama, Drawing

Work will be on display in-person through March 28th, and you can view all entries virtually here!

D87 Fine Arts Festival: Students, Staff & Alumni gathered at host school Glenbard East throughout the month of March! A gallery of 100 impressive artworks was the show's centerpiece. Select south students attended artist-led workshops while creating and connecting with their peers. At the Fine Arts College & Career Night, students got a chance to connect with South Alumni Artist & current SAIC student Emma Taylor in a Visual Arts Breakout Group. Emma has since returned to support current GBS AP Studio Art students who are putting the finishing touches on their AP portfolio submissions for May 6th.

School Safety is everyone's job – See Something, Say Something!

Safety at school is the responsibility of everyone. This includes staff, students and parents. The likelihood of an incident significantly decreases when everyone values safety. Please talk with your students about school safety and encourage them to be observant and report any of the following to the school and or police (students can remain anonymous):

- someone who has a weapon at or outside of school or on social media
- threats to school safety made by other students or someone in the community
- suspicious activities that make you feel uncomfortable, nervous or frightened
- strangers on campus

Please reinforce to your students not to open doors during the school day or to allow strangers to enter the building. Safety is a top priority at Glenbard South. Thank you for your partnership with Glenbard South.

8th grade Activities/Athletic night: Tomorrow night (4/13)

We are proud to welcome the class of 2026 to the Glenbard South Raider family. We will be hosting our 8th grade Activities and Athletics night this Wednesday 4/13. I know this night is not possible without our current students being involved. Thank you to all of our Raiders that have put in time to make their club/activity successful throughout the school year. We look forward to showcasing these wonderful clubs and teams to our future Raiders.

Prom on April 29th

Prom

Our 2022 Prom, "Enchanted Forest" will be held on Friday, April 29th at the Chicago Cultural Center. Tickets have been sold out. All students are required to ride the charter buses to prom, there are no exceptions. Buses will leave from Glenbard South at 5:45 and we estimate our return time to be approximately midnight. Students must be present at school on 4/29 through period 4 in order to attend that evening. We are looking forward to a fantastic evening!

Scavenger Hunt

On Wednesday 3/23 we hosted approximately 65 students for the first ever Glenbard South March Mascot Scavenger Hunt. Students were given clues to find different departmental mascots throughout the building. Students used problem solving skills along with team building skills to complete these tasks. Students had a great time and have already asked if we will be doing it again next year.

PBIS News

Congratulations to the following teacher for being nominated Raider staff member of the month!

- Ms. Hutchinson

Congratulations to the following students for being nominated Raider students of the week!

- Iman Meah, Omar Siddiqui, Brian Jochum, Alondra Martinez, Jack Sheehan, Michelle Marecki

Congratulations to the following class for winning our perfect attendance competition recently!

- Mr. Aye's period 7 AP English Language and Composition class and Mr. Hiles period 7 AP U.S. History class

School Counselor Corner

Senior Exit Meetings

School counselors are busy meeting one on one with all of our seniors, reviewing post secondary plans and conducting exit interviews. Counselors are helping our seniors identify in Naviance what college they want their final transcripts sent to. We are available to help students compare award letters and help families make their final college decisions. Additionally, counselors are helping our seniors identify in Naviance what college they want their final transcripts sent to. It is an exciting time for our seniors! Seniors also have to complete two surveys in Naviance, the Senior Spring Survey and the Senior Exit Survey. Typically we ask our seniors to complete these surveys while they wait to meet with their counselor. Our office staff is available to help them with this task.
